Please Note: The construction or renovation to any residence may require a building permit from the City of Rockledge. Approval of this application is no guarantee of compliance with the City of Rockledge ordinances. Submission of this application is not authority to begin construction. Only the approval of the ARC allows this action. If construction begins prior to approval, and approval is subsequently denied, you may be required to return the property to its former condition at your own expense. You are required to accomplish the modification or improvement per the approved application – any modifications after approval will require a new application to be submitted and approved. You must complete the project within 6 months of ARC approval or resubmit the application.

Please be sure to read the HOA covenants located on our website prior to submission.
